The purpose of the society is to promote the academic research and teaching in the field of History Didactics, focusing on issues related to historical thinking and consciousness, learning and teaching history, the education of history teachers, and both historical culture as well as public history. The society functions as an international forum for communication and cooperation between academic experts in the field of History Didactics in the five continents. It organizes international conferences, publishes a scientific journal (JHEC), edits further publications, and cooperates with national and regional groups of experts and with other international research associations in order to support the scientific development of History Didactics and history education.
